

ANTIKE IN BASEL

NOVEMBER 5 – 8, 2020

DEAR VISITORS

Although currently facing challenging times, we are determined to stage the fourth edition of the group exhibition ANTIKE IN BASEL.

The past months have shown that culture plays a key role for our sanity. Its significance cannot be underestimated as it conveys comfort, healing and support to the individual in difficult situations. It is therefore important to step back for a moment and to reflect on the lasting qualities of ancient artworks.

Covid-19: Obviously we will implement all the required protective measures to ensure a safe and pleasant visit. Please check our website concerning the respective regulations prior to the event.

International and notable exhibitors will be presenting a selection of fine artworks from the ancient cultures around the Mediterranean – and beyond. Since the successful launch in 2017 the exhibition enjoys international attention and has established a firm position on the cultural agenda of Basel. For this we are indebted to our cultivated and faithful clientele.

We very much look forward to inviting you to this event in the heart of the old city. See you soon – and stay healthy!
